

Antique Quilt Exhibit

We are putting a call out for antique and vintage quilts that will be displayed on Saturday, April 27, 2019, at the Hardin United Methodist Church.

An antique quilt is considered to be 50 years old or older, vintage is considered to be 25 years to 49 years old. This will not be a judged exhibit. We want to show off our ancestor's skills as fiber artists!

Space is limited to 40 quilts. Below is a list of requirements. If you have a quilt that meets these requirements we want to hear from you!

Requirements:

Must be clean and free of odors-Will be rejected if not

Must be 25 years old or older

Must be free of animal hair as we have volunteers with severe allergies-Will be rejected if not

Must be in good condition-no tears or holes.

We do not want to be responsible for further damage to your quilt.

The quilt can be quilted or tie knotted

COVERLETS are NOT quilts.
